THE BEAUTY OF THE FAR SIDE

Q: What type of outdoor activities do you enjoy?

A: "I enjoy most any type of outdoor activities."
— Stephen Thacker

"If I had time, I would enjoy climbing the Western Carolina Mountains."
— Levan Seperteladse

"I had the best time at the rope swing with all my friends after classes and going camping occasionally."
— Paige Tarr

"I enjoy going hiking and biking."
— Jeremy Gosche

In the late summer, many BC students go to the Davidson River to cool off from the heat of the Brevard sun.

In the fall, many BC students go to the Blue Ridge Parkway to enjoy the beautiful view.

The snow-capped mountains add an even more peaceful serenity to the Western North Carolina mountains.

MOVING IN

Now that you're out of the house, do you know what your parents did with your room? Did they turn it into a guest room? Did your younger sister or brother turn it into a play room?

Well, don't fret. Brevard College always has a room waiting for you. Think of Brevard College as your new home and everyone on your hall is your sibling.

Anxiously, Brian Tibbles moves into his new home . . . Green Dorm.

"I.D.'s — get your I.D.'s"
Bob White looks as though he could use a break.

Friendly signs and happy faces greet the new freshman as they enter Green Dorm.

As you can see, Jason Stroud is unexcited to be unpacking and unloading, but his mom looks thrilled!

Jen Hill and Dawn Haessic unpack and play follow the leader to Beam Dorm.

FAR SIDE OF THE OCEAN

During each spring semester and every summer, a group of up to 7 students travel to far-off Austria to spend time learning about Austrian culture, great artists, and composers. This program is several years old and thriving. Students experience cultural dances, music, activities, and even some schooling as is present in Austrian society. It is the chance of a lifetime for many and the hope of the future for others.

Brevard students got a feel for the old world while visiting Vienna.

MAKING FRIENDS

At some time in our lives, we will all have to interact with people that we do not know well. Upon entering college, students are exposed to a wide range of different attitudes and personalities. Being around so many people who are not exactly alike is a good way for students to broaden their horizons. By getting to know one another, students are constantly in a learning process. Perceptions of students grow and change by being involved with students of other cultures, races and religious backgrounds. At Brevard, it's easy to mix and mingle with others. Friendships build that last a lifetime.

Jessie wonders if playing twister in McBride's class will help him bond with fellow students.

JayCee, John Dylan, and Lou take advantage of the extracurricular activities to socialize.

Julie, Mattie, and Vivian relax even while they gossip.

The new commuter students are becoming more oriented with their new surroundings in the conference room in Coltrane Commons.

MIXING IT UP

Q: How do you mix it up? Do you know other mixers?

A: I've been DJing since I graduated from Marquette. I know a few people who DJ at nightclubs, but I don't know any of the DJs. I've been DJing since I was in high school. I've been DJing since I was in high school. I've been DJing since I was in high school. I've been DJing since I was in high school.

THE ACTIVE SIDE

When it comes to activities, Brevard does its share in mixing a variety of events to peak students' interest. No matter if one wants to dance the night away or climb to the highest point in the scenic mountains, Brevard can satisfy anyone's taste buds. For the people who like to press their luck, Casino Night was for them. And who can forget the hiker's empire or more commonly known as party central, the forest. And for those people who enjoy poetry, the student poetry reading gave them a chance to express their creativity.

Amy Miller finds humor in the student poetry reading in the SU on October 5, 1993.

HOMEcoming

As we all go our separate ways, there is one thing we can and do always count on: Homecoming. A time for friendships renewed, a time to remember just what fun we had as students at Brevard College. For those of us who are still here, it is a way to know that we can always return. There were alumni who attended Homecoming '93 from when this institution had a different name, Weaver College. As students come and go, it is nice to know that we have a common gathering place no matter how much time goes by. Homecoming represents a time for everyone to share a common bridge, that bridge we all crossed when we attended Brevard College.

There is an even more special aspect to the Homecoming experience. The crowning of the King and Queen. At Brevard, we make it extra-special and ever more exciting by adding a Prince and Princess as well. All the students vote, and the winners are crowned at the big soccer game. This weekend is well anticipated and never a let down. We enjoy a bonfire and other activities. This year we added something new to the agenda: the parade. There were old-timey cars and trucks, children of all ages and happiness floated in the air. Of course, we shouldn't forget the dance that always turns out to be of interest.

So don't forget that even though this may be your year to step off the bridge that Brevard offers, you can always return and remember your wonderful times at BC!

The International students Maria, Naoko, Midori, and Ai all enjoy Homecoming, for they can all show off their beautiful clothes from home.

PARENTS' WEEKEND

Parents' Weekend was held during Halloween weekend. Students and their parents had many activities at hand for their participation and pleasure. The Brevard College Theater Department opened The Imaginary Invalid on Friday night, not to mention the talent show which showcased the talents of Brevard College students. These and other activities helped make Parents' Weekend a success.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween always proves to be a frightening experience. Ross Hall held a very scary Haunted House. BC Recycles sponsored the event. Beam Residence Hall had games and a cookout for young children. After the games, the children went from door to door in the halls and BC students gave out candy to the trick or treaters. Halloween was filled with horror!

Some trick or treaters pay a visit to the President's house on Halloween. Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand held an open house and had treats for the children.

Dale McSwain frightens the students who were brave enough to enter the Haunted House held at Ross Hall.

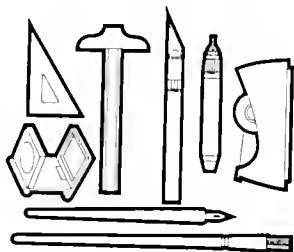

"Jason" uses his machete to chop up the guests in the Haunted House.

John Tougas and Tim Redman show their frighteningly limited skills in the medical field. A mad scientist experimenting with his victim!

Cinda McCracken participates in horrifying those who entered in to the depths of the Ross Hall Haunted House.

PROJECT INSIDE-OUT

Project Inside-Out allows students to volunteer their services in various settings. All Brevard College graduates are required to complete 30 service hours prior to completing their degrees.

Jamie Brown and Chris Ford serve lunch at the Hospitality House in Asheville.

Nochin Bone and Tom McAuley work on repairing a ceiling in Chavis, KY on the Fall Break service project. This effort was in conjunction with Appalachian Service Project that builds and repairs homes for needy families.

Naoko Izumi pitches in to help with the ceiling repairs while volunteering in Chavis, KY.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Q: What outdoor activities do you enjoy.

A: I like kayaking the creeks and rivers and also hiking in the forest . . . driving the Parkway to the overlook.

George Calder

Beautiful trees, rivers, and the air are really clear. I really enjoy and appreciate those. To find such as these situation is very difficult in my country.

Takashi Yamada

I enjoy mostly sitting beside a slow moving creek and letting my thoughts wander.

Shiloh Barfield

Camping is one of the many activities students enjoy taking advantage of in Pisgah National Forest.

The Blue Ridge Mountains provide a great way for students to beat the BC blues.

NATURE LOVERS

Chimney Rock is another attraction that gives students the opportunity to check out the magnificent view of Western North Carolina.

Rock climbing is a favorite activity among students when getting away from campus hassles.

"The Land of Waterfalls" provides a serenity that cannot be captured in words.

RELAX! ENJOY YOURSELF!!

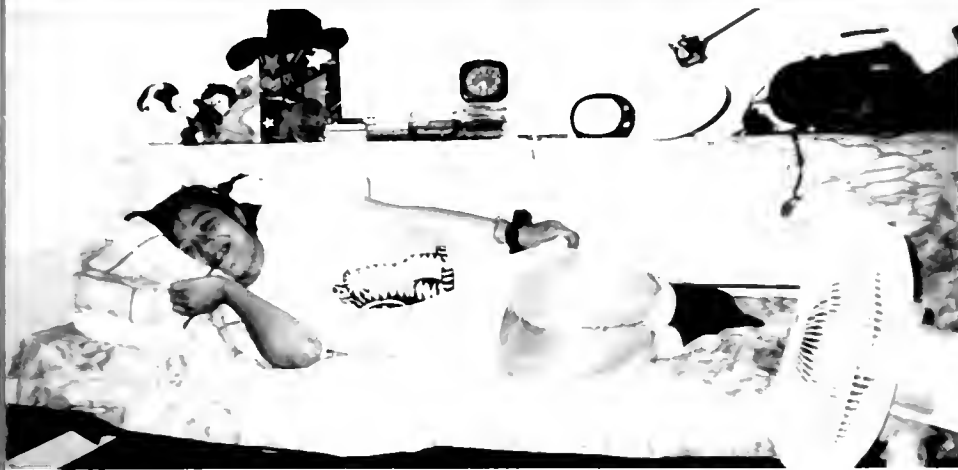

Sonya, Todd, Ken and Nick take a resting moment as they break between classes in the Student Union during the Fall Semester.

Lori Musgrove and Christi Shaw share a relaxing moment in the Student Union to keep warm in cold, windy November.

As we all know, relaxing is a major dilemma! However, we students at BC sure have gotten it down to something of an art form. The Student Union is a popular place as the seasons turn colder. At the rate students use the couches and chairs, the college will have to replace the furniture annually. (ha!) The quad in between Jones Dorm and Beam was a major point of congregation during the warmer times. It is necessary in life to find time for yourself; we certainly have learned that much here in our first two years of college.

Yukako Uchiyana grins happily as Beam Dorm finally quiets down enough for a quick nap.

Julie, Angela, Gneeda, and Richard relax and enjoy the spectacle at Homecoming.

While showing off his evening attire, Kevin White relaxes after a unusually hard day.

ANOTHER WORLD

Brevard College has many international students. A majority of these students are Japanese. However, the international spectrum does not stop there. We have students from Georgia, Russia that is, Korea, Canada, Gambia, South America and Yugoslavia. Ren Decatur advises these students with assistance from Bob Myers.

Naoko Izumi and Satomi Nakayama find friendship from home in a far away land.

Hisako Kitamura and Ana Vojvodic shows us that we can bring different cultures together and form a special friendship

FAR FROM BC

Many students at BC come from other countries while some of the American students have the opportunity to visit other countries.

Either way we all have the advantage of seeing how people other than Americans live. Min Kim, a BC student who excels in photography, brought pictures from his Korean home when he came to school. Maria Marino, who lived in Italy for 2 years, took pictures during the summer of 1992, when she was on her annual trip back to see old friends. These precious gifts brought to us from overseas assist in broadening our horizons.

The real world illustrates the struggles of how some can survive living on the streets whether in Korea or not.

The Vatican symbolizes the power of Catholicism.

The Fiat is known for its roomy size. What a way to travel around Sicily.

The downtown streets of Rome are a great place to meet people.

The classroom is where we educate ourselves about the world around us. This Korean classroom differs little from the typical American class.

CULTURE

It is time to spread your wings as far as they will go. Encourage others to do the same. Learn all that you can learn for as long as you live. Last but not least, enjoy this task for it truly is fulfilling and the mind is a terrible thing to waste!

This mountain in Austria is a perfect example of how quickly storms arise. Isn't it a beautiful shot?

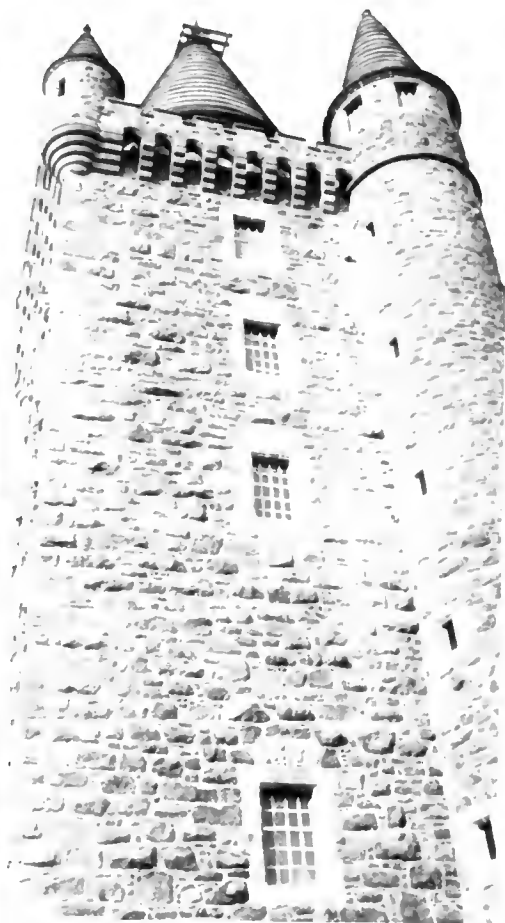

This is that same mountain five minutes later. Everyone better carry umbrellas!!

This is one of the oldest salt mines in the world. Found in Austria, it is still in full operation at this time.

This is a larger than life chess game. After church, citizens gather and actually play chess. One of BC's students, Scott Shores, played this game during the summer program in Austria.

While in Austria, some BC students traveled to other countries such as England. Pictured, above is a London castle.

Scott Shores, Photographer, unable to fit this castle in Austria into one shot, took two photos. Here is our attempt at putting them together so that you can see this magnificent view.

BREVARD COLLEGE

The Chiaroscuro publication is a cherished tradition at Brevard College. This publication is dedicated to fine art, photography, short stories and poetry. Due to the acknowledgements of students' talents and potential that Chiaroscuro displays, other interest in the Fine Arts have been realized. For example, "Poets and Writers at Brevard" is a recently established effort at having outside writers come share their minds and talents with interested students and faculty. Another offspring of the Chiaroscuro is students gathering in the cafe for poetry readings. Students sometimes read original works, or they share works that they enjoy or appreciate and want to share. Makisha Gary enjoys reading one of her own creations at one of the poetry readings during Fall semester.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS IN SUPPORT OF BREVARD COLLEGE

"The Student Ambassador Organization is a select group of students who assist the Admissions office in explaining the benefits of Brevard College to prospective students. The Organization and its officers also assist the college in other areas such as Alumni weekend, college day programs, and Trustee meetings," says Bob McLendon, Dean of Admissions.

The officers in this organization are Jaycie Weeks, President (1st semester), Heather Decatur Vice President (1st semester) President (2nd semester), and Laurel Gilbert, Secretary. The Ambassadors are an important group to the college. Their main responsibility is to assist in campus tours and answer any questions prospective students may have. There are certain questions that students only feel comfortable asking other students and the ambassadors do a very good job. This year they are going to do a high ropes course together at Earthshine. They also had a Christmas dinner at the end of the first semester.

JUDICIAL BOARD

Many people on campus make up Brevard Student Government Association. The three main people are Paige Tarr, SGA President, Paisley Tuffile, Vice-President in charge of Social Board and Laura Hayes, Vice-President in charge of Judicial Board. In addition, representatives are selected from each hall and the Commuter Organization, usually one freshman and one sophomore.

J-Board is comprised of one representative from each dorm. Their job is to hear appeals of students who have received disciplinary action. They decide whether or not the student deserved to be punished. Social Board is made up of students, most of whom are already on SGA. They plan fun activities such as parties, dances or bands, to name a few.

The main purpose of the SGA is to represent the student body and to get the students what they want. In the past, SGA has worked for things such as extended visitation and a 24-hour study area in the new Student Cafe. The SGA has been a successful part of the BC community.

COLLEGIATE SINGERS

Warm-ups are a must for a good sounding choir.

Attentiveness and talent makes this choir the best it can be.

Collegiates are Brevard College's main choral body. The group is made up of both music and other students blending in a harmony of voices. Members are Todd Baker, Jennifer Berry, George Calder, Andy Collins, Jennifer Cook, Beth Cordell, Amy Dallaire, Michie Eplee, Darryl Forney, Daniel Frankenberger, Meredith Funkhouser, James Gould, Chan Graham, Jonathan Groves, Matthew Hendrix, Charles Heselton, Shannon Kerr, Leon Kirkpatrick, Tami Knesel, Ginny Leigh, Randy Marlow, Robert Matuszak, Denise Mckie, Dale McSwain, Dawn Nickerson, Eiji Okada, Ai Okuda, James Parker, Joshua Poindexter, Timothy Redman, Joy Reyes, Mindy Ruch, Chiyoko Saba, Bobbie Jo Simmons, Kerry Smith, Rebecca Stine, Brett Tate, John Tougas, Phillip Turner, Derrick Weaver, Tonia Windham.

Mr. Zuchin teaches his students with respect and knowledge, to make collegiate singers the best choir it can be.

CHAMBER MUSIC

Chamber music is an integral part of a musician's learning experience. It mixes fun with music that has been played for centuries to put together a small group of musicians that rely on one another to produce a quality of music that is rarely heard today.

BC Woodwind Quintet (l to r): Matt Hendrix, Judy Jacobson, David Kirby, Kris Bailey and Joy Reyes in a performance in Dunham Auditorium.

Darryl Ferneg, Denise McKie, Kris Bailey, and Chris Whitmire make up one of Brevard's prominent Brass Quartets.

John Gulyas, Ginny Leigh, Chris Whitmire, Larry Warf and Darryl Furney, members of the BC Brass Quintet, give a performance in the Student Cafe.

BC offers Chamber Music in percussion, brass, woodwinds, and choral to give as many students as possible a chance to perform in a chamber group. Performances are given in the evening twice a year with a mix of music from 1600 to 1994 and beyond.

CONCERT

The 1993-94 Concert Band, one of BC's three large performance ensembles, practices intently to bring a high quality performance every semester to Brevard College. Members include: Matt Hendrix, Nozomi Yamada, Joy Reyes, Derrick Weaver, Tonia Windham, Antron Reardon, Leon Kirkpatrick, Dale McSwain, Todd Baker, Scott Shores, Larry Warf, Chisako Nakamura, Tim Redmen, Darryl Farney, Denise McKie, John Gulyas, Daniel Fankenberger, Adam Purcell, Pete Small, Larry Wright, LeZonn Miller, Marty Cribb, Matt Queen, and John Smith.

The Brevard College Concert Band is in one of their many intense rehearsals.

Director Kirby, new to BC, conducts the band with confidence.

The woodwind section Adron Reardon, Joy Reyes, Derrick Weaver, Tonia Windham, and Nozomi Yamada watch intently while waiting to play.

1993-94 Jazz Ensemble (l to r): Robert Riddle, Charlie Heselton, Carrie Smith, Kyle Catherwood, and Antron Reardon relax during a break.

From the percussion to the director, the Jazz Band works out some of the harder parts of jazz.

Bringing it all together, jazz promote teamwork, practice, and fun to let the music flow.

JAZZ

Under the direction of Mr. Kirby, the upbeat sounds of the BC Jazz Ensemble can be heard at both their Fall and Spring concerts. Members include: Andron Reardon, Robert Riddle, Jeff Lancaster, Kris Caswell, Nozomi Yamada, Larry Warf, Scott Schores, Jacob Freeland, Layton Parker, John Gulyas, Daniel Frankenburger, Darryl Forney, Adam Purcell, Charlie Heselton, Kyle Catherwood, Carrie Smith, LeZonn Miller, Marty Cribb, John Smith, and Matt Queen.

Dawn Haessig with all caution and concentration, moves the ball down the field while being chased by the enemy.

Again Dawn Haessing displays her skill by trying to score a goal by kicking the ball with all her might.

Coach Bart gives a helping hand while preparing for the start of the game.

What is going on here? Is Kerri getting fresh or is she pulling Coach's chair away so he can fall flat on his buns?

Coach Bart is getting into it here, huh? What did you do Coach?

NOT FAR FROM PAR WOMEN'S TENNIS AND MEN'S GOLF

Q: What's the best thing about playing on a collegiate team?

A: "The friends that you meet." — Kristen Ash, tennis

"The team work and competition." — Tanya Custa, tennis

Q: What the best thing about coaching?

A: "Getting to know the individuals, to know the fine young ladies that come to Brevard, to watch them grow and achieve their goals." — Coach Bart, tennis

"The opportunity to work with the student athletes and participate in their development as golfers and individuals." — Scott Yager, golf

Matt Costanza is about to send that little golf ball to another galaxy.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

Paige Tarr — plans to major in Psychology at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN.

Laura Weems — plans to attend Mercer University in Macon, GA to complete her B.A. in Elementary Education. She plans to marry David Proctor after graduation from Mercer.

Malinda Gallup — plans to attend Lees-McRae and major in Business and minor in Psychology.

Ronnie Galloway — plans to become an Electrical Engineer after graduating from NCSU in Raleigh, NC.

Dawn Nickerson — plans to work for 1 year to pay her school loans and then plans to go on a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Eventually, she will complete her B.A. at Brigham Young University.

Wayne Richardson — plans to work for a year in Franklin and then study Art at ECU.

Ginny Lee — plans to continue studying French Horn and eventually perform in a professional orchestra.

Henry Stepp is on the other end of the camera in this picture. He took many of the pictures we see in the Clarion and yearbook.

Paisley Tuffile, Dereck Owens and Joy Reeves are working hard towards graduation. Here, they take a break from their studies to represent their dorms on the homecoming court.

GRADUATION

Micheal Knox presents a report to the class.

Graduation always brings fond memories of days past like those sunny afternoon soccer games.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES

Dangerous and bad, Michael Jackson alleged sex and drug crimes lead to confusion about where this star's career can possibly go next (People 11/29/93).

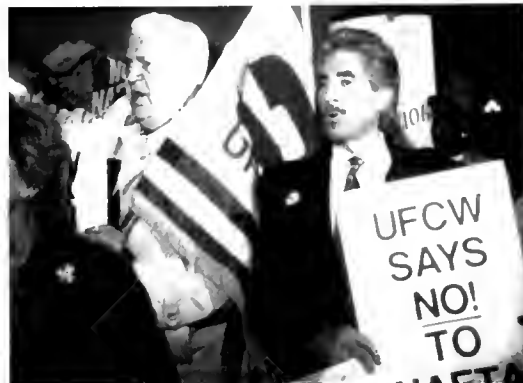

Clinton's passion for both foreign policy and domestic affairs take its toll upon him during his first year (Time 10/18/93).

For over 40 days and 40 nights, the nation's Midwest struggled to stay above water (Time 8/9/93).

Again another natural disaster tormented the West Coast with fire, but this time it was started by the hands of man (Newsweek 11/8/93)

With nothing left to conquer, Michael Jordan no longer soars over the NBA (Time 10/18/93)

Many schools in the US are now becoming war zones that scares everyone and make learning impossible (US News and World Report 11/18/93).

While millions watched, VP Al Gore and Ross Perot debated over the controversial NAFTA (Time 11/22/93)

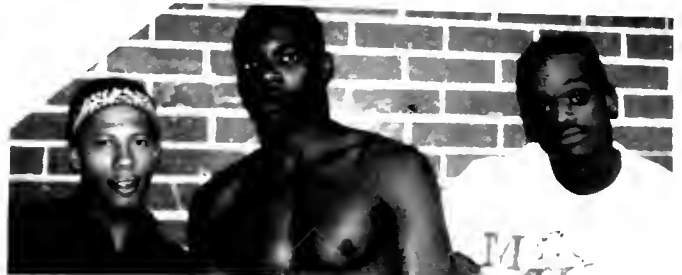

The Mission to Somalia, which began with visions of charity, proved to be an image of horror (Time 10/18/93)

CARPE DIEM.

"We shall grow old apace, and die
Before we know our liberty,
Our life is short, and our days
run
As fast away as does the sun,
And, as a vapor or a drop of rain
Once lost, can ne'er be found again . . ."

MUSICA FICTA

The majestic Traunstein in Almunster, Austria was a major inspiration for Scott's musical writings.

Conducting is a major dream and goal Scott has set in his life.

Musica Ficta A) the addition of notes to a piece of music by the editor to help the reader understand better. B) The Fantasy World where Scott Shores gets all ideas and technique for writing of music. Thanks to all who have unlocked the door and showed me in!!

For those of you who don't like your picture taken, YOU MAY RUN ...

I will eventually get you because YOU CAN'T HIDE!

Crystal Metcalf and I show our dedication at one of our many yearbook meetings.

For the past two years, I have put a lot of time into the yearbook amongst all of the other extra-curricular activities like BC Recycles (headed by Dr. Bob Glesener), running the lights and sound for Oscar Wilde's Telling Wild Tales (directed by Bob White), working with the soccer and basketball coaches with their respective scoreboards, helping Aurora Oliveri with various activities around campus, and being a SGA representative for Ross Hall.

Thanks to my family and friends for your support and love over the years. Thanks for the great times and for making my last semester here at BC one to remember. I hope I will see you all in the future soon!!!

*Love,
Chrystal*

THE WILD SIDE

OFF THE

Wall

AS WE

GET WILDER

AND WILDER . . .

Preston Woodruff rides the waves down Bust *@# Falls during the crazy, warm days of summer!!

Andy Collins takes a ride on the Wild Side during the Blizzard of '93!!!

THE WILD SIDE

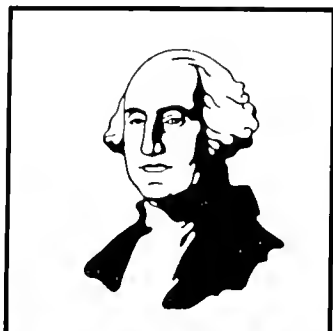

Phil, looks as though you had a wild night at the Homecoming Dance in the fall!!

Tush and LaMonica dance like wild as the night goes on at the Homecoming Dance.

Ai and Midori, while a world away from home, got to know new and past Brevard College students at the Homecoming Dance.

THE UP SIDE

... RIISING

TO THE

TOP

Angela, Erica, Rebecca, Krista and Becky obviously are enjoying the rear view of the guys' flag football game.

Amy and Heather dance to the upbeat music at the Homecoming Dance.

As BC students say, "Always keep your head up, but your feet on the ground?"

Joy, Rebecca, and Dawn are always up to having a good time.

Clyde Carter is moving up in the world by climbing Looking Glass Falls with his rock climbing class.

THE DOWN SIDE

THE MORE WE STUDY, THE DEEPER
WE GO . . .

Stewart, John, Paige and Rebecca bear down on their studies in the Jones Library.

Heather looks a little stressed out in the yearbook staff meeting.

To cool down from the stress, Conan gets down in the BC's creek.

Jody shows how college life often transforms Mom's home-cooked meals into "Budget Gourmet" microwave meals.

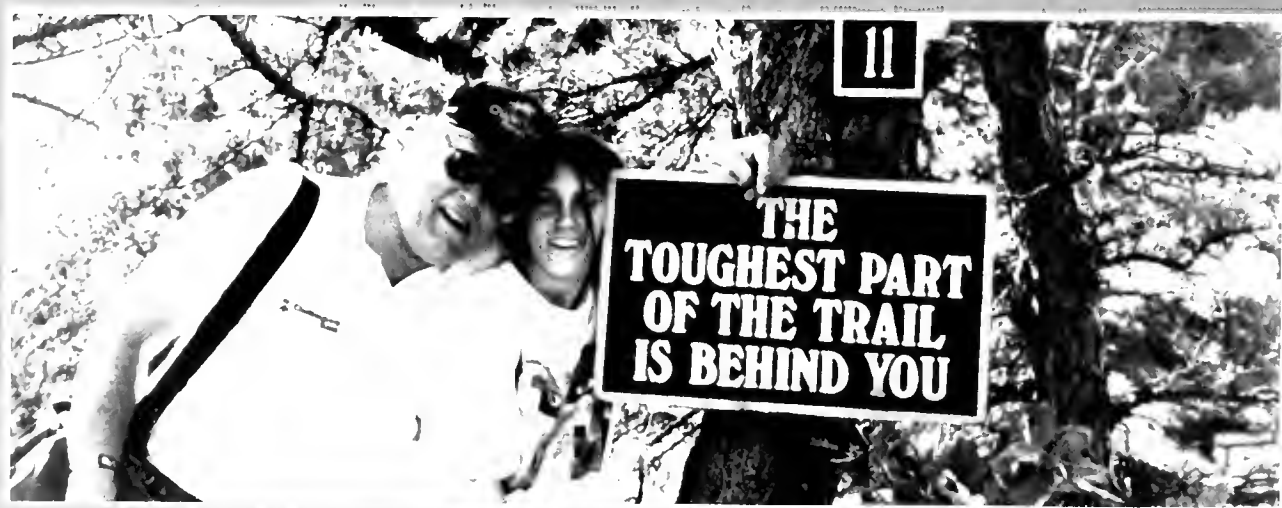

Kevin shows how some students deal with the down side of life at Brevard College by catching some ZZZZ's in his Beam dorm room.

THE FAR SIDE

FAR

Nicole Gilbert and her father rejoice at the end of a long hike at Chimney Rock. Nicole and her dad spent time together enjoying the fall colors in WNC over Homecoming weekend.

Catherine Thomas, John Lambert, Kevin White, Caroline Holtz, Kevin White, Emily Swarcz, and Roy Cleary try out the transvestite look while studying in the library.

Jonny Colley, instructor in philosophy, shows his true colors by decorating his office door with Far side cartoons.

No one without a 4 X 4 attempted to "Park in the Grass" during the 1993 "Spring Break" winter snow storm.

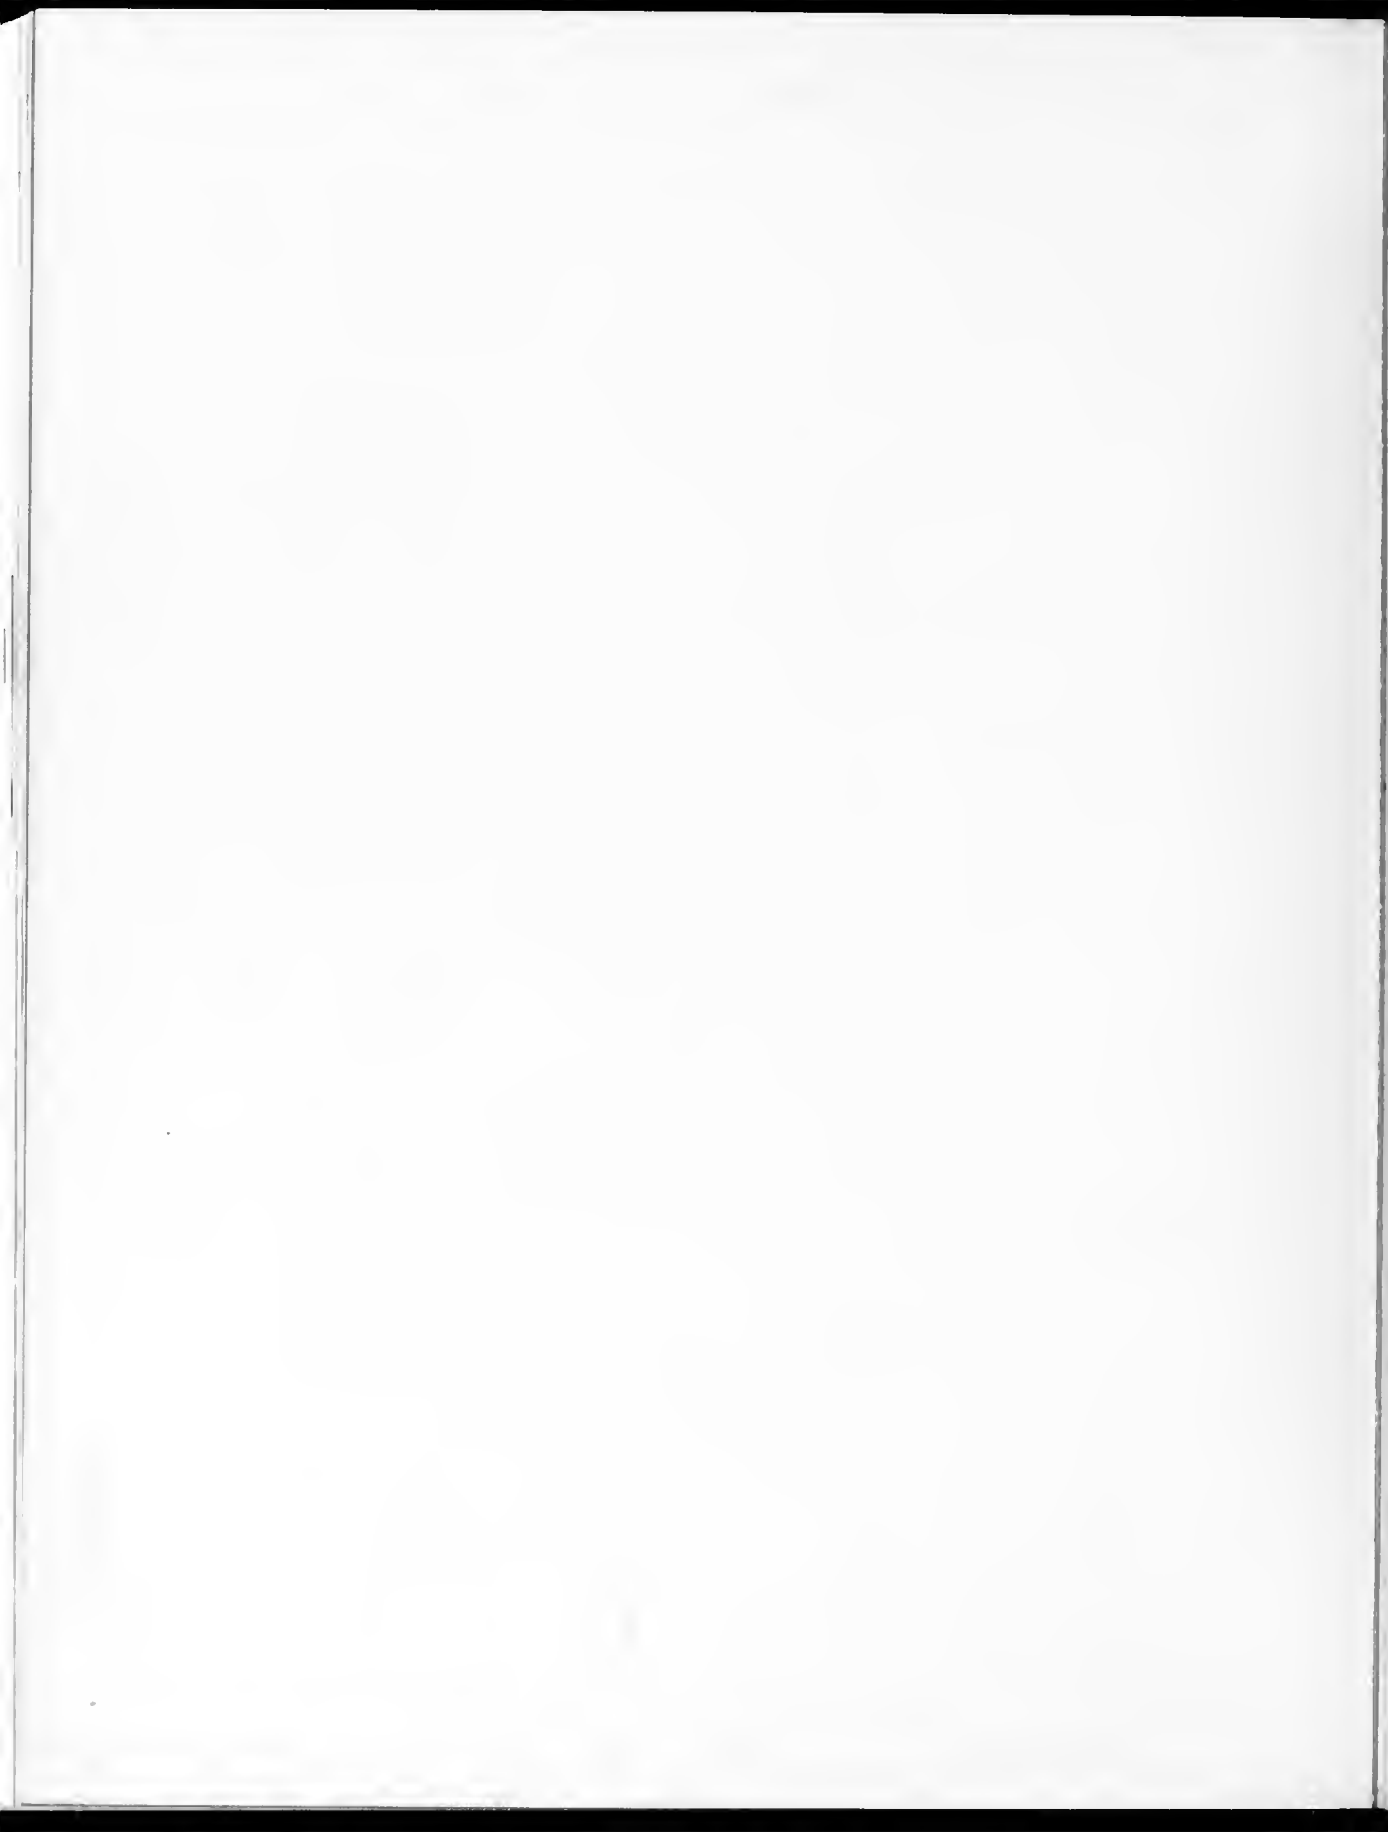

The people enjoying the Derby Day picnic were allowed to make pigs of themselves.

NO MATTER HOW FAR
WE MOVE FORWARD,
WE CAN ALWAYS LOOK BACK

Two Steps Forward

BACK TO ... ONE LOOK
